INDIGENOUS WOMEN'S LIFE NET

Indigenous Women's Life Net (IWLN) is a culturally specific program for Native American victims of sexual assault.

IWLN strengthens and inspires women to:

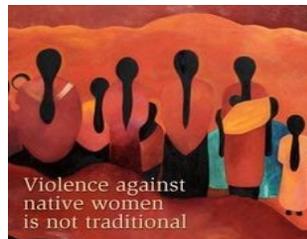

- Achieve individual sovereignty and freedom from oppression;
- Live a peaceful life;
- Be visionaries;
- Achieve their hopes and dreams;
- Love and nurture themselves and their children;
- Create a healthy home environment that supports safety, stability, self-sufficiency, and well-being.

WEEKLY EDUCATION/ SUPPORT GROUPS

We offer weekly sexual assault education and support groups. Participants in these groups will gain the knowledge necessary to begin their healing journey.

HIGHER THAN THE NATIONAL AVERAGE

According to Amnesty International; "The Maze of Injustice Report" Native American Women experience sexual assault 2.5 times the national average.

SEXUAL ASSAULT

Sexual assault is an act of violence and is a crime. Any type of sexual activity you do not agree to is an act of sexual violence and a criminal offense.

REFERRAL PROCESS

Participants can either be referred by other organizations or can contact the program directly. The referral process is initiated with a faxed or emailed referral packet.
