 - ii. Safety for employees experiencing domestic/sexual violence is the primary goal of this policy, with offender accountability and treatment as important components. It is expected that all employees will abide by the laws of this and any jurisdiction in which they might find themselves, including the laws prohibiting domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking crimes, whether committed in the home, at work, or any other location.
 - iii. If an employee believes that a fellow employee is in an abusive relationship, but the employee has not disclosed this to their supervisor, the Executive Director should address any job performance issues and refer the employee to community resources.
 - iv. Successful workplace intervention may consist of providing the employee with a nonjudgmental place to discuss the violence, information to begin accessing resources in the community, referring them to outside resources, or assisting the employee to formulate a plan to increase the employee's safety, whether they are planning on leaving the offender.
 - v. The Minnesota Alliance on Crime will maintain the confidentiality of domestic and sexual violence circumstances and any other referrals under this policy to the extent permitted by law. Other employees will be informed on a need to know basis only.

d. Leave of Absence or Time Off for Employees Who Are Experiencing Threats of Violence

- i. At times, an employee may need to be absent from work due to domestic and/or sexual violence, and the length of time should be determined by the individual's situation. This time period shall be determined through collaboration with the employee and the Executive Director or her designee.

Employees are encouraged to first explore whether paid options can be arranged which will help employee cope with a domestic or sexual violence situation without having to take a formal unpaid leave of absence. This leave will not be used against the employee. Depending on circumstances, this may include options listed below.

- i. Permanent full-time employees may be approved for 24 hours in a 12-month calendar year with pay upon provision of documentation without identifying specific details.

- i. Employees may be approved for unpaid time off upon provision of documentation without identifying specific details.

- ii. When an employee subject to discipline confides that the job performance or conduct problem is caused by domestic and sexual violence, a referral for appropriate assistance will be offered to the employee.
 - iii. The Executive Director, in collaboration with the employee, should allow a reasonable amount of time for the employee to obtain assistance regarding the domestic and/or sexual violence with the understanding that the effects of domestic and/or sexual violence can be severe and may take extended periods of time to address fully.

 - (d) Upon completion of the investigation and if the Minnesota Alliance on Crime reasonably believes such incidents did occur, the employee's employment may be terminated.

Notwithstanding these prohibitions, the Minnesota Alliance on Crime may enter into a contract or transaction as described in (a), (b), or (c) if the material facts as to the contract or transaction and as to the director's interest are fully disclosed or known to the Board of Directors, and the Board of Director authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction in good faith by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors (without counting the interested director), at a meeting at which there is a quorum not counting the interested director. LORI SWANSON

This Guide is provided by the Minnesota Attorney General's Office to assist board members with the important responsibilities they have assumed. It is only a guide and is not meant to prescribe exactly how board members must act in all situations. Each organization possesses a distinct composition and experiences different circumstances and outcomes.

This guide is merely provided as a reference tool and an outline to assist directors in performing their duties. It does not contain all of the provisions, exceptions, limitations, and requirements of the law. For the exact requirements of the law, please refer to the source of the law itself. Many of the guidelines in this guide are taken from the Minnesota Nonprofit Corporation Act, located in Minnesota Statutes chapter 317A.

For more assistance, there are a number of resources in Minnesota that provide, at little or no cost, information, direct assistance and materials for charities, their officers, and their directors. A list of these resources can be obtained from the Minnesota Attorney General's Office:

INTRODUCTION

The Attorney General's Office has prepared this Guide for Board Members to help directors understand their role and responsibilities as stewards of the charitable organizations for which they serve. Under Minnesota law, directors of a Minnesota nonprofit corporation are responsible for the management of the business and affairs of the corporation. This means that directors must supervise and govern the charity's efforts in carrying out its mission. This does not mean that directors are required to manage the day-to-day activities of a corporation. Rather, directors can appoint officers and employ individuals who effectively carry out the daily tasks of running the nonprofit organization. Directors must be active, informed, and engaged, as they are considered fiduciaries—a term used for individuals who are in a position involving trust. Specifically, directors are subject to the fiduciary duties of care, loyalty, and obedience to the law, among others. Minnesota courts have long held that the law imposes the highest standard of integrity on the bearers of these duties.

To Exercise the Proper Duty of Care:

The duty of care generally requires that directors discharge their duties in good faith, in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the nonprofit corporation, and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances. This means:

1. Active Participation. A director must actively participate in the management and operations of the organization. This includes preparing for and attending board meetings, reading and evaluating all materials received in advance of meetings, reading meeting minutes, reviewing the performance and compensation of the Executive Director and the organization's other officers and employees, reviewing financial documents, exercising independent judgment, asking questions to obtain information necessary to make informed decisions, and so on. Serving on a board is a significant commitment. Individuals who do not have the time to participate as required should not agree to be on a board of a nonprofit organization.

2. Committees. Directors may establish committees having the authority of the board and may rely on information, opinions, or reports of these committees for certain matters. These committees are subject to the direction and control of the board, however, and committee action alone does not mean a director has properly discharged the director's fiduciary duties. As a result, directors are still responsible for overseeing these committees and should periodically scrutinize their work.

3. Board Actions. A director who is present at a meeting when an action is approved by the entire board is presumed to have agreed to the action unless the director objects to the meeting because it was not lawfully called or convened and does not participate in the meeting, the director votes against the action, or the director is prohibited from voting on the action because of a conflict of interest. Proxy voting, or voting through an agent, by directors is not permitted.

4. Minutes of Meetings. Written minutes should be taken at every board meeting. These minutes should accurately reflect board discussions, as well as actions taken at meetings.

5. Books and Records. A director should have general knowledge of the books and records of the organization. Under Minnesota law, the organization's articles, bylaws, accounting records, voting agreements, minutes, and financial statements must be made available to members and directors who wish to inspect them for a proper purpose. A board should consider adopting written document retention policies to ensure documents are properly maintained and stored.

6. Accurate Record Keeping. A director should not only be familiar with the content of the books and records, but should also assure that the organization's records and accounts are accurate. This may require the director to take steps to have regular audits conducted by an independent certified public accountant. At the very least, the director should be aware of what the financial records disclose and take appropriate action to make sure there are proper internal controls, or processes to assure reliable financial reporting and proper administration over charitable assets.

7. Charitable Assets. A director has the duty to protect, preserve, invest, and manage the nonprofit corporation's assets and property in a fashion consistent with donors' intentions and legal requirements. Instituting proper internal controls aids in the protection of the nonprofit corporation's assets.

8. Resources. A director must assist the organization in obtaining adequate resources to enable it to further its charitable mission.

9. Investigations. A director has a duty to investigate warnings or reports of officer or employee theft or mismanagement. In some situations, a director may have to report misconduct to the appropriate authorities, such as the police or the Attorney General. When appropriate, a director should consult an attorney or other professional for assistance.

DUTY OF LOYALTY

To Exercise the Duty of Loyalty:

Directors have an absolute duty of complete, undivided loyalty to the organization. This means that directors should avoid using their position or the organization's assets in a way which would result in pecuniary or monetary gain for them or for any member of their family. A director should put the best interests of the organization first and avoid engaging in transactions with the organization from which the director will benefit. This means:

1. Conflicts of Interest. Under Minnesota law, a conflict of interest arises when a nonprofit corporation enters into a contract or transaction with a director, a director's family member, or an organization in which the director has a material financial interest. Under certain circumstances, these types of transactions may be acceptable. If the transaction is challenged, it may be permissible if the interested director has carried the burden of establishing that the transaction was fair and reasonable, that there was full disclosure of the conflict to other directors or members, and that the contract or transaction was approved by non-interested members or other directors in good faith.

2. Written Policy. Boards should establish a written policy on avoiding conflicts of interest. This policy should include written procedures for determining potential conflicts of interest and identify a course of action for when such conflicts are found by the board.

3. Loans. It is rarely proper for a nonprofit corporation to provide a loan or guarantee to a director or the director's family members. Such transactions raise ethical questions and typically subject the nonprofit corporation and the board to public and government scrutiny. In limited circumstances, a nonprofit corporation may provide a loan or guarantee to a director or the director's family members if, in the judgment of the entire board, the transaction will benefit the nonprofit corporation. These decisions should be meticulously documented and tracked through means such as board meeting minutes, correspondence, ledgers, etc. to establish their propriety.

4. Corporate Opportunity. Directors are under a fiduciary obligation not to divert a nonprofit corporation's business opportunity for their personal gain. This means that a director may not engage in or benefit from a business opportunity that is available to and suitable for the corporation unless the corporation decides not to engage in the business opportunity and the board follows the conflicts of interest procedures set forth in the Minnesota Nonprofit Corporation Act.

5. Internal Revenue Code. There are additional prohibitions related to the duty of loyalty that are specified in the rules of the Internal Revenue Code regarding self-dealing. For more information, visit www.irs.gov/charities-non-profits.

DUTY OF OBEDIENCE

To Exercise the Duty of Obedience:

Directors have a duty to follow the organization's governing documents, to carry out the organization's mission, and to assure that funds are used for lawful purposes. Additionally, directors must comply with state and federal laws that relate to the organization and the way in which it conducts its business. This means:

1. State and Federal Statutes. Directors should be familiar with state and federal laws relating to nonprofit corporations, charitable solicitations, sales and use taxes, FICA and income tax withholding, and unemployment and workers' compensation obligations. They should also be familiar with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service. Directors should see to it that their organization's status with state and federal agencies is protected.

2. Filing Requirements. Directors must comply with deadlines for tax and financial reporting with the Internal Revenue Service, for registering with the Attorney General's Office, for making social security payments, for income tax withholding, and so on. If an organization is incorporated under the Minnesota Nonprofit Corporation Act, directors also have a duty to maintain the organization's corporate status by submitting timely filings to the Secretary of State's Office.

3. Governing Documents. Directors should be familiar with their organization's governing documents (including articles of incorporation, constitution, bylaws, codes of conduct, codes of ethics, and any other documents governing the organization) and should follow the provisions of those documents. Directors should ensure that proper notice is given for meetings, that regular meetings are held, that directors are properly appointed or elected, and that the organization's mission is being accomplished.

4. Board Training. Directors should consider what training and education the board may need on a regular basis to ensure proper oversight of the corporation, and develop an orientation for new board members.

5. Outside Help. When appropriate, directors should obtain opinions of legal counsel or accountants.

ENFORCEMENT OF THESE DUTIES

RESOURCES FOR NONPROFITS

Enforcement of These Duties:

If a director breaches his or her fiduciary duties, or fails to act in accordance with the standards described above, at least 50 members with voting rights or ten percent of members with voting rights, whichever is less, or the Attorney General's Office, may bring an action for equitable relief, including awarding attorney fees and disbursements to members.

General Instructions*Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.*

Section 501(c)(3) states that an organization exempt under that section will lose its tax-exempt status and its qualification to receive deductible charitable contributions if a substantial part of its activities are carried on to influence legislation. Section 501(h), however, permits certain eligible section 501(c)(3) organizations to elect to make limited expenditures to influence legislation. An organization making the election will, however, be subject to an excise tax under section 4911 if it spends more than the amounts permitted by that section. Also, the organization may lose its exempt status if its lobbying expenditures exceed the permitted amounts by more than 50% over a 4-year period. For any tax year in which an election under section 501(h) is in effect, an electing organization must report the actual and permitted amounts of its lobbying expenditures and grass roots expenditures (as defined in section 4911(c)) on its annual return required under section 6033. See Part II-A of Schedule C (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ). Each electing member of an affiliated group must report these amounts for both itself and the affiliated group as a whole.

To make or revoke the election, enter the ending date of the tax year to which the election or revocation applies in item 1 or 2, as applicable, and sign and date the form in the spaces provided.

Addendum Applies:
NO.

Dear Applicant:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in section 501(c)(3).

We have further determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code, because you are an organization described in sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

If your sources of support, or your purposes, character, or method of operation change, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status and foundation status. In the case of an amendment to your organizational document or bylaws, please send us a copy of the amended document or bylaws. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

As of January 1, 1984, you are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more you pay to each of your employees during a calendar year. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Since you are not a private foundation, you are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other Federal taxes, please let us know.

Grantors and contributors may rely on this determination unless the Internal Revenue Service publishes notice to the contrary. However, if you lose your section 509(a)(1) status, a grantor or contributor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act, or the substantial or material change on the part of the organization that resulted in your loss of such status, or if he or she acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would no longer be classified as a section 509(a)(1) organization.

Letter 947 (D9/89)

MINNESOTA GENERAL CRIME VICTIM

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Requests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of Code sections 2055, 2104, and 2522.

Contribution deductions are allowable to donors only to the extent that their contributions are gifts, with no consideration received. Ticket purchases and similar payments in conjunction with fundraising events may not necessarily qualify as deductible contributions, depending on the circumstances. See Revenue Ruling 67-246, published in Cumulative Bulletin 1967-2, on page 104, which sets forth guidelines regarding the deductibility, as charitable contributions, of payments made by taxpayers for admission to or other participation in fundraising activities for charity.

In the heading of this letter we have indicated whether you must file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax. If Yes is indicated, you are required to file Form 990 only if your gross receipts each year are normally more than $25,000. However, if you receive a Form 990 package in the mail, please file the return even if you do not exceed the gross receipts test. If you are not required to file, simply attach the label provided, check the box in the heading to indicate that your annual gross receipts are normally $25,000 or less, and sign the return.

If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. A penalty of $10 a day is charged when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay. However, the maximum penalty charged cannot exceed $5,000 or 5 percent of your gross receipts for the year, whichever is less. This penalty may also be charged if a return is not complete, so please be sure your return is complete before you file it.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

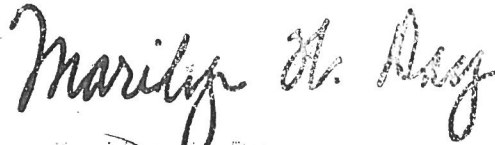

If we have indicated in the heading of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your exempt status and foundation status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

MINNESOTA GENERAL CRIME VICTIM

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,
